BOOK SYNOPSIS

Excerpt from Thoughts for All Times God, make up three of the titles found in this first part. Without being abstruse or scholastic, the treatment is solid, interesting and suggestive. The two essays on the Blessed Trinity, first, as Reflected in Man and next as traceable in the Irrational Creature, are good examples of that kind of apologetic work which does not pretend to be demonstration, but is valuable as showing how the mind might reasonably expect some such stupendous revelation as the Trinity.
